AMA CHARTER 2129 SQUADRON COMMANDERS MESSAGE FOR APRIL, 2004.

Saturday April 3rd started with a little rain but that didn't stop seventeen of our members from arriving at Bob Green's open house. As usual Bob was the perfect host. Showing all of his latest projects, and having gobs of hot coffee for everyone. Three dozen Krispy Crème donuts were also consumed.

Mario Arccardi brought a friend Leu Martell, and Norm Vanderslice had his Grandson Gage Chapman present. Also present was Gary Jones who also joined the club. Gary is not only a RC Jet pilot, but is also a retired USAF, LTC, F-16 Fighter Pilot and presently flies big jets for United Airlines. We welcome him to our club and look forward to many interesting flying stories.

. Warning! Watch out when he and Maurie Kaiser get together. Their stories will really fly.

Welcome aboard Gary.

MEETING MINUTES

3 April 2004

The meeting was rather informal and met at Bobby Green's home in unincorporated Adams County. Members started to arrive about 9:00 AM and wandered around the house, garage and hanger admiring models and full scale aircraft in various stages of completion.

The turnout was very good...nineteen people showed up. Those who came included Dave Teich, Dexter Bates, Leu Martell,(guest), Mario Arccardi, John Dalton, Gary Jones,(new Member), Les Sullivan, Max McCartney, Hal Johnson, Norm Vanderslice, Gage Chapman, (guest), Jim Shaw, Maurie Kaiser, Don Lorentzson, Jerry Davis, John and Jim Dolan, Dub Feth and John Evans.

The meeting proper convened at 10:55 AM.

Since the meeting was quite informal no secretary/treasurers report was presented. Dave reiterated the he will not be presiding at the May meeting and that Jim Shaw will be in charge. Jim will also give a lecture on batteries.

A correction is in order. Club hats were reported as costing members $12.00. The correct cost is $10.00.

Max McCartney and Don Lorentzson each won the $10.00 door prizes.

The meeting ended at 11:05 AM, at which time we thanked Bobby Green for his hospitality.

The Secretary informs me that the following members have not paid their 2004 dues. Mario Accardi, Jack Allnutt, George Baxter, Joe Dolan, Urban Feth, Ken Gerlits, Cliff Jamison, Earl Keffer, Dave Loshbaugh, Rob Murphy, Chuck Nelson, Jim Pazalos, Barton Phillips, Jim Redmond, Dan Reed, Larry Stoughton, Bud Trenary, Bud Turk, and Mike Wilson. Please make your checks out to Les Sullivan and mail to his address: 6531 Teller Street, Arvada, CO. 80003.
