SQUADRON COMMANDERS MESSAGE FOR FEBRUARY, 2005.

I am hoping for permission from the Jefco-Aero-Modelers-RC-Club, to have a table advertising the Colorado Dawn Patrol, at their upcoming 30th Annual RC Auction which will be held on February 4th to 6th.

Our regular meeting is on the 3rd and the auction starts the next day for setups. I will have a table with our new found chapter banner behind it. There will be Dawn Patrol Chapter 90 applications as well as applications for IMAA.

Any one willing to assist me on Saturday and Sunday will be welcome.

MEETING MINUTES 6 JANUARY, 2005

The meeting came to order at 7:03 PM at O'Meara's Ford dealership. Eleven people were in attendance including Dave Teich, Jim Dunn, Earl Keffer, Max McCartney, Wayne Perry and son, Josh, Jim Shaw, Phil Pillitteri, John Dalton, Mario Accardi and Les Sullivan.

Dave showed a Chapter 90 banner that he retrieved from Leo Ford. He's going to add a new border to it as it's a little frayed.

The Secretary/Treasurer's report was read and accepted.

Wayne Perry agreed to become the club's new Safety Officer.

There was a long discussion concerning the future of Chapter 90. The topics ranged from safety rules at the field and in building planes to hosting a fly-in. Nothing was decided concerning the fly-in because of the club's small membership. It takes a lot of people to put on a fly-in. Never-the less, it was decided that Chapter 90 will stay in business for another year because some progress has been made during the past year.

Dave handed out a copy of this year's flying events and asked for a vote to approve naming our 18 July, 2005, Fly-in, as the, Don Lorentzson Memorial Fly-in. Those in attendance so voted.

Jim Shaw mentioned that the new AMA District IX VP, Mark Smith, will be in town and will attend the Jeffco's auction in early February. He will have a hospitality suite at the nearby Holiday Inn and would like to meet as many modelers as possible. Speaking of the Jeffco auction. Phil Pillitteri will ask if chapter 90 can have a small booth there to promote IMAA and Chapter 90.

Phill, for Show and Tell, had his new 1/3rd scale Space Walker in the bones. He will have it finished to show at the February meeting.

Wayne Perry said that a hobby shop. Things that Zoom, located in Northglenn near 119th and Washington is selling covering and spray cans of paint at very low prices.

Phil Pellitteri and Les Sullivan won the door prizes ($10.00 and $5.00 respectively).

The meeting closed at 8:25 PM.
